Message

Greetings Shipmates.

It seems like only yesterday that we were meeting in Milwaukee for our wonderful reunion hosted by Tom and Donna Tessar. In a little over one month we will be meeting in San Diego for the 12th Reunion of the Association. A couple of reminders. The closing date for the Magoffin rate of $99 at the Sheraton is Friday March 24, 2006. Also, don't forget your auction items for the fundraising efforts. Merble and Carol Bellin are not able to make the reunion this year but they have sent their prized afghan as part of the auction.

This year I placed the reunion notice in Leatherneck Magazine and have received some written and telephone responses. I'm hoping that some Marines who sailed on the Magoffin during its service will be able to make the reunion in San Diego.

A reminder also, guests are welcome to come and enjoy the tours and events of the reunion. I know that some members have already signed up relatives and friends and we look forward to having them aboard.

This is a very important meeting of the crew as we need to make some decisions in regards to the Magoffin Scholarship and it's future funding so that it will continue on long after all of us.

See you soon!

Mike Stein
President

What to do in San Diego

Hopefully you have by now booked your reservations and made your plans to attend the 12th reunion in San Diego. (if you haven't, please see page 2 for more information.)

After traveling all the way to California you may want to spend a few extra days enjoying the warmth, the sunshine and the wonderful attractions. Here are a few suggestions as to what you might want to do before or after the reunion.

Jack Benny: Laughter In Bloom

Center for the Arts, Escondido
340 N. Escondido Blvd. Escondido, CA
92025 Ticket office (800) 988-4253
Sunday, April 22, 2006 at 8 pm
Center Theater
$35 (Senior Price $32)

Veteran stage and television actor Eddie Carroll's one-man show, Jack Benny/ Laughter In Bloom, goes beyond mere imitation of Benny's familiar catch phrases and mannerisms. It's a captivating evening of theater that has Jack Benny himself leading us on a fascinating tour of his rich and colorful life and illustrious career that spanned six decades, from vaudeville to films, from the Broadway stage to radio and television, to concerts and personal appearances

Flower Fields Ranunculus Tours

Every April, the Flower Fields at Carlsbad Ranch blossom into a spectacular sea of brightly colored ranunculus flowers. Visitors can view and tour the fields in Carlsbad. Open to the public seven days a week, 9am to 5pm. Interstate 5 to Palomar Airport Road Exit. Admission fee and guided tours must be arranged in advance. 760-431-0352 or www.theflowerfields.com

A letter from a Marine

Jan 16th, 2006

Mr. Stein,

I read in Leatherneck Magazine about your upcoming reunion for the USS Magoffin (APA-199). I was a "guest" on the Magoffin in early 1954, part of a replacement draft for the 1st and 3rd Marine Divisions. We traveled in a convoy with several other APA's and AKA's. It was my first contact with the Navy and I was impressed with how the ship was run and managed, as well as the volume of paint chipping!

Scholarship update

According to Tom Haglage, as of January 26th there was almost $10,000 in the Morehead State scholarship fund account. Tom wants to thank everyone for their generosity.

The goal of the scholarship fund is to raise $25,000. Once the fund reaches that amount it will become self sustaining and insure that the USS Magoffin Veterans Association annual scholarship to a graduating senior from Magoffin County high school will continue in perpetuity.

There will be more information and discussion on the subject of the scholarship fund at the reunion as well as a vote to ratify the plan.

A message from the Vice President

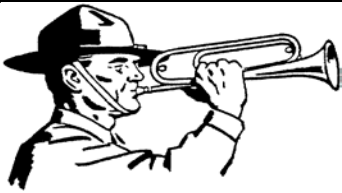

As most of you know, I am in adult foster care. I have to have trained and certified people to stay with my client if I go anywhere. It became official yesterday, that the people that do my relief work are not going to be able to sit for me during the Reunion in San Diego.

If any of you are updating or building a dress blue uniform, and need a cox'ns patch, please get in touch with me. I had a few custom made and will be willing to let 8 of them go for $ 20.00 each. They are almost impossible to find now. I found one online and they wanted $ 65.00 for it. None of the uniform shops in Norfolk VA have them. You might be able to find them out there, but I wasn't able to.

I will try to make it to Colorado. You all have a great time and think of me while you sit in the Gilded Cage watching the dancers.

Tom Cota

We received word that Tom had passed away on November 26, 2005. Additional information will be published when received. Tom was a BM/SN who was aboard in 1960 through 1962.

An Interesting Letter Regarding the USS Gage

Mike Stein and I received the following email note from Tom Williamson regarding the USS Gage project.

Mike and Terry,

You remember our discussion at the Milw. reunion where we were to offer our help for the USS Gage restoration project. I'm ready to give up on that. On 3/23/05 I sent an email to: contact@apaproject.org identifying myself and our organization and asked the status of the USS Gage and how could we be helpful now. I got an answer right away from a Bob Harris, webmaster apa project who said the ship was back in the James River fleet and off the disposal list. He said a Peter Stoudt has been working to formalize the organization to continue efforts to save her, all help is appreciated. He said he was forwarding my email to Peter, "you two should talk". No word from Peter Stoudt all summer. On 10/21/05 I sent him an email re identifying myself and our org. and said that Bob Harris had forwarded my 1st email and I had received no answer. He answered the same day with " Please forgive my failure to get back to you, at the moment I'm at an internet cafe on a Greek island in the Aegean , on a trip for 2 weeks, back home in Va. on Sunday. I will contact you next week with a more complete status report on the Gage effort. Thanks for your interest." That was Oct. 22 and it's now Jan 06. Seems to me there's not much interest in our help. I'm sure one thing they need is money. I feel our money and members money would be much better spent on our own scholarship project. Unless I hear from them I'm not going to try further and will be glad to report above at our next crew's meeting. Looking forward to April in San Diego. Hope to see you there.

Tom Williamson

A Shipmate needs Help

James Kaderka, came aboard the ship on February 8th 1960. On February 29th, he fell while carrying some laundry and injured his knee. On March 3, 1960 he was transferred to Balboa Naval Hospital for evaluation. He eventually received a Disability Discharge with what was described as a "preexisting" disability. In reviewing the service medical records at time of his entry on active duty, however, there was no mention of any type of a preexisting disability.

He has had a disability claim pending with the Veterans Administration for several months now. His claim was denied and this was upheld by the Board of Veterans Appeals on two separate occasions. We need new and material evidence to present to the Board of Veterans Appeals.

Donald H. Ferris, PN1, USN Retired

If you remember this event or have any of the ship's logs from this time, please contact Terry Little or Sam Rubin.

What else to do in San Diego

Forbidden Broadway - Special Victims Unit

The very popular, off-Broadway production will visit San Diego for ten weeks only. "Forbidden Broadway" skewers the New York theater's biggest hits and flops and has been a darling of critics and audiences since 2004. The production will return to Manhattan at the end of the San Diego run. The San Diego presentation will be at the Theatre in Old Town. Tickets and information: 619-688-2494

Greece: Secrets of the past Ruben H. Fleet Science Center

This new IMAX film takes a sweeping archeological journey back in time as it sets out to uncover the buried secrets of one of the world's most enlightened societies – ancient Greece during the Golden Age (500 BC to 400 BC).

In Stabiano

This rare traveling exhibition of Roman frescoes features 72 objects, all from the Roman villas of ancient Stabiae, an exclusive retreat for Rome's elite classes located on a bluff overlooking the Bay of Naples (approximately 4.5 kilometers southeast of Pompeii). Included in this spectacular exhibition are 24 ancient frescoes—many of the very highest quality—11 stuccoes, as well as other significant art objects and archeological artifacts. The exhibition will also display a complete three-wall triclinium (dining room) fresco from the small nearby villa of Carmiano.
